You Can't Take It With You by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman February 18, 19, 20, 25, 26, 27

Meet the Sycamores. Grandfather Martin Vanderhof, who once worked on Wall Street but decided to just "relax" for the next 35 years, anchors the family with his philosophy of doing what makes you happy. After all, money can't buy happiness. His granddaughter, Alice Sycamore, is the black sheep of the family. She works as a stenographer on Wall Street and whose boss, Tony Kirby, has proposed marriage. Alice insists that Tony and his smug, uppity parents meet her zany, but somewhat offbeat family. The Kirbys are invited to dinner, however, show up one day early. It's a celebration of laughs and family unity from beginning to end. Produced in cooperation with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

Dial "M" For Murder by Frederick Knott May 13, 14, 15 and 20, 21, 22

Tony blatantly married Margot for her money, but when it becomes obvious that she is in love with Max, he plots her murder. Lesgate, the hired killer, arrives but Margot defends herself so well that it is Lesgate who is killed, and Tony must plant evidence to suggest that Margot brutally murdered him because he was blackmailing her. A complex web of murder and mystery. Produced in cooperation with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

Southern Hospitality by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope & Jamie Wooten July 29, 30, 31 and August 5, 6, 7

The Futrelle Sisters – Frankie, Twink, Honey Raye and Rhonda Lynn – are in trouble again. This time, the problem is bigger than ever: their beloved hometown, Fayro, Texas is in danger of disappearing and it's up to the sisters to save it from extinction. Folks have been leaving Fayro in droves, but Honey Raye, with a major assist from her former nemesis, Geneva Musgrave, has come up with a possible solution: "Fayro Days," which includes a craft show, a pet costume parade, a beauty pageant, and a huge Civil War battle reenactment with only fifteen participants! Truly a laugh-out-loud farce. Produced in cooperation with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

Nunsense a musical comedy Book, Music and Lyrics by Dan Goggin November 4, 5, 6 and 11, 12, 13

Nunsense begins when the Little Sisters of Hoboken discover that their cook, Sister Julia, Child of God, has accidentally poisoned 52 of the sisters, and they are in dire need of funds for the burials. The sisters decide that the best way to raise the money is to put on a variety show, so they take over the school auditorium, which is currently set up for the eighth grade production of "Grease." Dancing, singing and laughter fill the theater!

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc
